

AACT National Awards

The following awards, when warranted, are presented by the American Association of Community Theatre at its summer event. The AACT Awards Committee receives nominations and selects the recipients of the awards, with the exception of the Fellows, who are elected by the Fellows. Anyone can make a nomination. A list of previous AACT National Award recipients is on the AACT website <www.aact.org/awards/index.html>, and available from the AACT office.

Fellows Award — The honorable designation Fellow is bestowed for life upon those members of AACT who over a period of years have contributed significantly to the idea and ideal of community theatre.

Art Cole Award — Honors a lifetime of leadership in community theatre by members of AACT who have provided leadership at the national level, in addition to local and/or regional levels.

David C. Bryant Outstanding Service Award — Recognizes members of AACT for significant, valuable, and lasting service to community theatre.

Robert E. Gard Superior Volunteer Award — Presented to individuals above the age of 65 who have faithfully served community theatre on a non-paid basis for over 25 years. (Please include nominee's age and number of years of volunteer service when nominating.)

Twink Lynch Award — Recognizes AACT member theatres for successfully completing major steps in new directions, expanding services to their community, or moving to the next level of organizational development.

Distinguished Merit Award — Presented to individuals and organizations in recognition of contributions made to promote and develop the highest standards for community theatre.

Special Recognition Award — Presented to individuals and organizations whose contributions to community theatre are far reaching and of a special nature.

Corporate Award — Presented to businesses and corporations for significant financial support of community theatre on a regional or national basis.
